

Manager can view pending leave request details assigned to them

Generated on

No markdown content available.

Verify that a manager (with appropriate permissions) can open a pending leave request from their assigned queue and view all relevant request details as per their role.

Document Generated:

This is an automatically generated document. Please verify all requirements with stakeholders.